WILLIAM BENBOW'S COMPANY
GOES OVER BIG AT BOOKER

William Benbow's "Get Happy" company is a real live entertainer, at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. There is plenty of pep through the show which accounts for its being featured on the Columbia wheel the past season.

The curtain rises on a bunch of attractive girls singing and dancing. Benbow and Odell Irving appear as the comedians and get into trouble with "Shorty" Edwards, until, "diddle with 'Other Folks Business'." This comedy set is followed by Marie Cohen and the girls score "Lots of Pappas" with a dance insert by Henry Coleman. Bertha Scott scores a hit singing "Without You," Henry Troy's latest ballad. Walter Barle and chorus go big with "Oh Mable," Benbow and Irving get into trouble with "Shorty" over a pie and a bull-dog puts them to flight. Marie Cohen and the girls score another big hit, this time with "Red Hot Mamma." George Alexander does an artistic "Charleston." But and Baruch Williams team up for some excellent dancing which displays much art and goes over big. A quartet of girls dance to the time of "June Night." Henry Coleman does an eccentric burlesque of popular dance movements and is a scream. A comedy sketch has Benbow acting as a watchman over a "corpse" for Miss Cohen. He is left there with a "diddle" played by Irving, who objects to the limited company and there is much fun in the queer happenings. The "dead arises" and scares them away. Viola Williams, assisted by George Alexander, Henry Coleman and the girls, but over "Shine" to a new, to which brings a good show to its climax.

It is understood that this company will tour the Pangloss Time in the near future.

VAUDEVILLE NEXT WEEK
Four good acts of vaudeville have been booked for next week's show at the Booker Washington Theatre. They include Lillian Westmoreland, the double-voiced wonder; Hudson and Hudson, man and woman in a comedy act; Davenport and Carr, who have furnished some popular Columbia Records; and Doyle and Willie, a novelty comedy and dancing team. Willie Porter will be remembered as formerly of the team of Willie and Buster Brown. Doyle was formerly a partner of Coma Fisher.

BANDMASTER WILLIAM WHITE COMES HOME FOR VISIT

Bandmaster William White is home on a visit from the Tolliver Smart Set Co. show. Tolliver, known as "dill House," and his aggregation of more than a score of players, started out from St. Louis, and has made a big hit throughout the south. White left the show in Princeton, West Virginia. He says "dill House" is going to the south. "Yampee Babe" assisted by the girls representing beauties of different nations. The show is headed east. The company is now traveling in a new bus which carries three persons. At baggage and seven. White says he expects to return to the show in about four weeks.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE OLYMPIA

Mary Philbin and Norman Kerry will be seen in "Fifth Avenue Models" at the Olympia Theatre this Saturday.

Milton Sills and Viola Dana are the stars in "As Man Desires" on Sunday and Monday. The story is a strange love plot between a surgeon in the British army who desires to escape a false marriage; charged, best as the captain of a South Sea island; and a native dancing girl, favorite of the beachcombers and sailors of the Tahiti water-front.

Marguerite Marsh, the popular movie star, will appear in person on Tuesday and Wednesday. In conjunction with her feature picture, Sills will feature big screen talks. Hollywood and talk funny story. "The Fatal Mistake" of the "Movies" will be an added attraction on Tuesday and "Out of the Dust" on Wednesday.

"A Thief in Paradise" with Doris Kenyon, Ronald Colman and others will be featured on Thursday and Friday.

THE CASINO

A Buck Jones in "The Arizona Romeo" will be the Casino Theatre feature this Saturday.

Tom Mix and "Dick Turpin" will be the feature on Sunday and Monday. The unique "diddle about Dick Turpin" is the comedy and the really remarkable story. It is the story of that famous "Robin Hood" of the highway, the hero of England, who robbed the rich to give to the poor. His ride to York, the celebrated achievement, which called for the attention of poets, is as thrilling a piece of picture work as has been accredited to the hero who made his name by his riding.

"Coyote Fangs" will be presented on Tuesday. Super-Special on Wednesday. Richard Talmadge in "Himself's Millions" and Jack Hoxie in western drama on Thursday. Big Boy Williams in "Riders of the Sandstorm" and J. B. Warner in a five reel drama on Friday.

THE RETINA

Al Wilson will be seen in "The Cyclone Rider," a daredevil aerial picture at the Retina Theatre this Saturday. The first episode of "The Great Circus Mystery" with Bonomo, the strong man, will also be presented.

THE COMET

"The Lost Lady" will be the feature at the Comet Theatre this Saturday.

BETTY COMPSON
"NEW LIVES FOR OLD"

WALLACE MacDONALD THEODORE KOSLOFF and SHELDON LEWIS

BETTY COMPSON—Paris knew her as a daring dancer and favorite of many men. But in Normandy she was just a peasant girl—in love. And Betty is truly wonderful in both! Her very best picture, make no mistake about that!

The Old Life—Paris, jazz, flirtations, fun. The New Life—New York, home, happiness, love—'til the sands of the Old creep into the New. To win a man's love she gave up the Old Life—and then the ghost of her past came to threaten her future.

He thought he was marrying a French peasant girl—and she was really the most notorious woman in Paris! Can a notorious woman do a shock of respectability when she marries and thus shut out the intrigues of her colorful past?

urday, Irene Rich characterizes a woman who sinks into the mire of degradation in her fight with life. Lincoln J. Carter's "A Cyclone Rider" will be shown on Sunday. This is a high-speed drama featuring Evelyn Brent, Fred Brown, Charles Connell and Alma Bennett. "Bloodstained," a spectacular drama of exciting women and adventurous men, will be shown on Monday. Edmund Lowe in "The Bottle," on Tuesday; and "Wm. Fox's" super-special play "In Love With Love" on Wednesday, are big features.

Betty Compson will be seen in "New Love For Old," on Thursday and Friday. Companies of American and French troops in full battle panoply move here and there, which around and about them fits Betty—now as a Norman peasant girl, now as a gorgeous, sophisticated Parisian dancer—wearing the beginning of the story net of suspicion and intrigue, which culminates in a thundering climax toward the close of the story. It's a tale of war-time secret service, with Betty as a dancer who is caught in the net and gladly sacrifices everything—even, it appears, her great love—for her country.

THE STAR
Mrs. Wallace Reid will be seen in "Broken Laws" at the Star Theatre this Saturday and Sunday. It deals with two mothers, who find each other in every whim and another who neglected her daughter for the delight of a stage life. The problem that they encounter make up a story that includes thrills, suspense, emotion and fast action from start to finish.

Lefty Flynn will be seen in an action drama, "Road of the Border," on Monday. Peggy Morrison in a western comedy drama, "False Trails," and George J. Larkin in a stunt picture, "Midnight Secrets," are Tuesday features. Eva Novak in "The Fatal Mistake," a newspaper reporter's adventures and a woman S. Hart in "Singer Jim McGee," are specials for Wednesday.

The attraction next Thursday and Friday will be "Lady of the Night." Two girls enter life at the same time. Eighteen years later one emerges from a convent with a diploma and the other is released from a state reformatory with the doubtful credentials of that institution. Both fall in love with the same man. Their problem is solved in this story of the criminal and the high society, with Norma Shearer in a dual role.

THE CRITERION
Richard Barthelmess will be seen in "New Toys" at the Criterion Theatre this Saturday. Jack Holt in "The Thundering Herd" will be the Sunday special.
Eugene O'Brien and Mae Busch are leading stars in "Frisivolous Sal," with its thrilling life on the frontier, feet above the earth, on Tuesday. Virginia Valli heads a strong cast in "In Every Woman's Life" on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace Reid in "Broken Laws" will be the special attraction Thursday. It is a dramatic story replete with thrills and surprises and full of interest from start to finish. The growing condition of disregard for honesty and "squareness" on the part of children and adults, to be largely the result of lack of proper religious training and also a growing disregard for the law and right doing on the part of the adults, it is in this situation which "Broken Laws" treats in a dramatic way, which makes it one of the greatest pictures in years. "Enticement" will be presented next Friday.

THE ROOSEVELT
Marion Davies in "Yolanda" will be the Roosevelt Theatre special on Sunday and Monday. It is a dramatization of Charles Marryat's historical romance of the same title. It is woven around the romance of the princess Mary of Burgundy, who, in the masquerade of the burger girl, Yolanda, wins the love of Europe's most dashing prince. The story is set in the fifteenth century, in the court of Charles the Bold, Duke of Burgundy.

Richard Dix will be featured in "A Man Must Love" Thursday. It shows where the hero has chosen between starving and wronging his sweetheart's parents. There will also be eight acts of amateur vaudeville on this program.

THE JESTER
Claire Windsor, Bert Lytell, Fred Kington and Cullen Landis are the stars in "Born Rich," at the Jester Theatre this Saturday.

The attraction for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will be "In Every Woman's Life." This subject, coupled with dramatic and spectacular scenes, makes the picture one of interest to everyone. It shows what happens when a woman is forced into one woman's life at the same time. Virginia Valli, who heads the leading stars, is the daughter of a nobleman, who is the son of a nobleman. She is regarded as the ideal type for the part, while Mae Busch, who plays the other woman, is almost as ideal. Lloyd Hughes as the man she should have married, and Stuart Holmes as the man she could have married.

Marie Prevost in "Cornered" will be the Wednesday attraction. This drama and thrills surrounding plotting crooks.
Lewis Stone, Lew Cody and Florence Vidor are the stars in this new, well-timed husband-a-wife who considers herself a "bird in a gilded cage" as an intruder in a family.

THE VENUS
John Gilbert will be seen in "Romance Ranch," at the Venus Theatre this Saturday. There will also be a vaudeville program of musical comedy acts.

"After Six Days" will be the big attraction for four days, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. It is a story of a man who is the only Testament of the Bible from Adam and Eve to the Sons of Solomon. The picture is understood to have been five years in the making and involved the expenditure of over
